

Ancient Order of Hibernians Cook and Serve Breakfast at Thomas Merton Center

Bridgeport CT, August 19, 2011

Brothers from the Ancient Order of Hibernians JFK Division cooked and served breakfast at the Thomas Merton Center on Friday, August 19, 2011.

Over 100 guests enjoyed a hearty breakfast of cereal, texas toast, muffins and oatmeal. A big crowd turned out to enjoy the comforts of the Thomas Merton House and its caring staff and volunteers.

The Thomas Merton House is part of the Diocese of Bridgeport. “We are all children of God, entitled to dignity, respect, and a sense of self-worth. With that in mind, The Thomas Merton Center is much more than a soup kitchen to so many. It is a house of hospitality, day shelter, sanctuary, and welcoming place of hope and care to the hundreds of people it provides with food, love, and a helping hand each day.”

Ancient Order of Hibernian Brothers (left to right) Tom Scanlon, Rich Loefelm, Jim Murray (Activities Chairman), Mike Meade (Standing Committee), Kerry McCoy and Ted Lovely (Past President) volunteered and gave back to the community as part of our commitment to Christian Charity. The AOH will cook and serve again on Friday November 4, 2011.

ABOUT THE ANCIENT ORDER OF HIBERNIANS: The Ancient Order of Hibernians is the oldest Irish Catholic Fraternal organization, founded in 1836. The JFK Division of the AOH has over 200 members from the greater Bridgeport, CT area and does charity and social work in support of our motto Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity. The JFK Division meets on the second Tuesday of every month at the Gaelic American Club in Fairfield.

CONTACT: TOM KEANE 347-405-3666